Dear Allen:

Your letter of March 22 in which you offered us a quota of three in your next course on World Communism is greatly appreciated. Since receipt of your letter,

[REDACTED]

25X1

This, of course, is the ideal solution from our point of view, and I wish to express our appreciation.

I also plan to send two of my staff to your course on World Communism, one of whom will be sent to [REDACTED] while the other will be kept here in reserve.

25X1

This is another example of the good cooperation between our Agencies.

Sincerely,

ed

Theodore C. Streibert
